

for Mary Louise Bringle
(on July 31, 2002)

In the Mystic Banquet Hall

SEILOU 7.5.7.5.7.7.7.5

Mary Louise Bringle

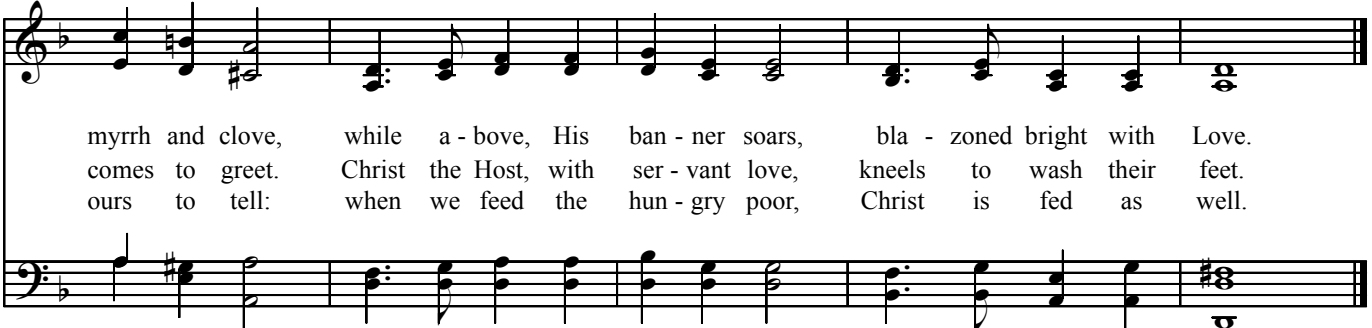

Carson P. Cooman

1. In the mys - tic ban-quet hall, Christ pre-sides as Host, when the un - de - serv - ing soul
2. Sum-moned guests from far and near fill the ban-quet hall, heav - y - la - den, bowed with care,
3. In our earth - ly ban-quet halls, where we join to feast, break-ing bread and pour - ing wine comes as wel - comed guest, served with rare and choic - est wines, spiced with cost - ly wear - y from their toil. Here, they lay their bur - dens down as their Mas - ter serv - ing first and least, shar - ing gifts in ser - vant love, won - drous grace is myrrh and clove, while a - bove, His ban - ner soars, bla - zoned bright with Love.

comes to greet. Christ the Host, with ser - vant love, kneels to wash their feet.
ours to tell: when we feed the hun - gry poor, Christ is fed as well.