

Listen for the Call of God

For Julia Broxholm's studio voice class, Brevard College, November 2001

Mary Louise Bringle, 2001

ABERYSTWYTH 7.7.7.7 D

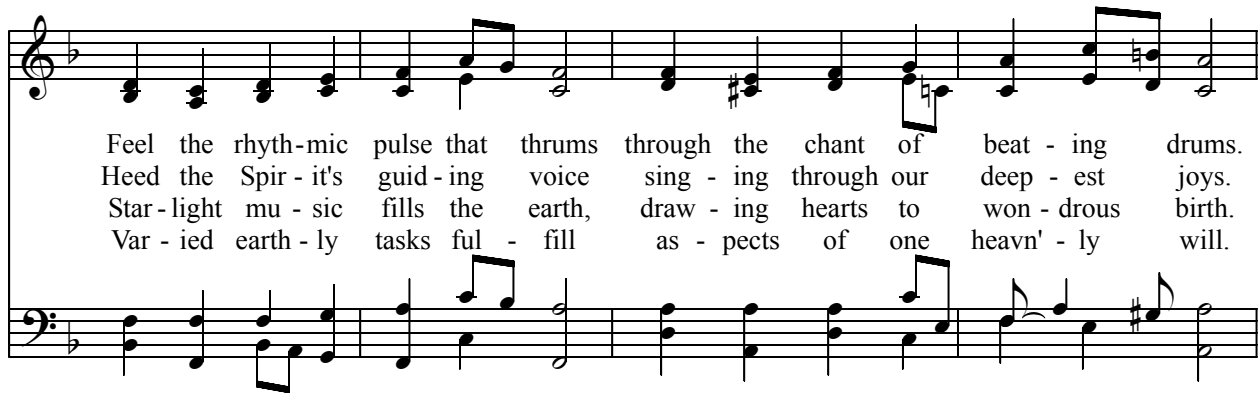

Joseph Parry, 1879

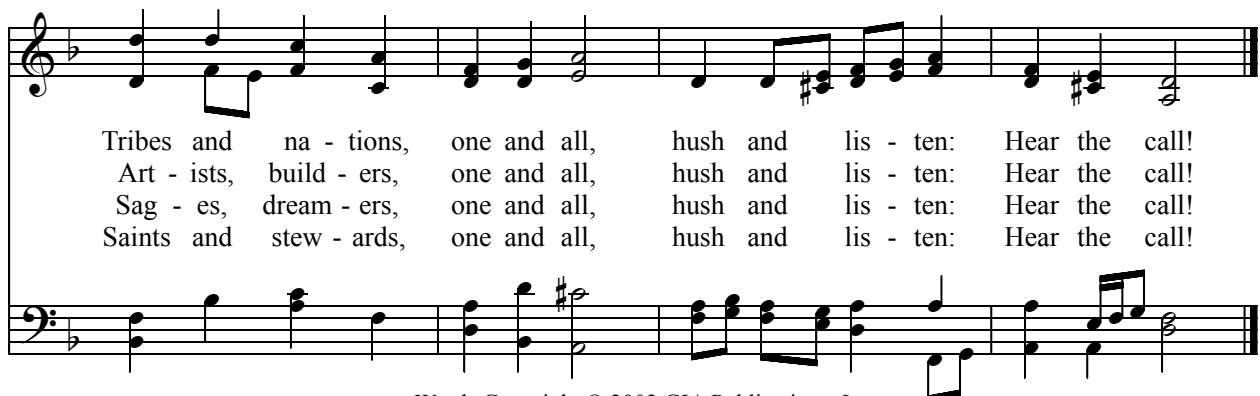

1. Lis - ten for the call of God, ring - ing through the morn - ing air:
2. Lis - ten for the call of God, whisp' - ring in our diff' - ring gifts,
3. Lis - ten for the call of God, soar - ing through the eve - ning skies:
4. Lis - ten for the call of God, stead - y through our nights and days, toll - ing bell or trill - ing cry, bid - ding peo - ple, "Come to prayer."

off - ring gra - ces, free - ly shared, craft - ing beau - ty that up - lifts.
hov' - ring an - gels, rush - ing wings, her - ald voic - es, rest - less sighs.
sanc - ti - fy - ing work and play, shap - ing all our life to praise.

Feel the rhyth - mic pulse that thrums through the chant of beat - ing drums.
Heed the Spir - it's guid - ing voice sing - ing through our deep - est joys.
Star - light mu - sic fills the earth, draw - ing hearts to won - drous birth.
Var - ied earth - ly tasks ful - fill as - pects of one heavn' - ly will.

Tribes and na - tions, one and all, hush and lis - ten: Hear the call!
Art - ists, build - ers, one and all, hush and lis - ten: Hear the call!
Sag - es, dream - ers, one and all, hush and lis - ten: Hear the call!
Saints and stew - ards, one and all, hush and lis - ten: Hear the call!