

We Seek You Here, as Well, O God

All, unison 1. We seek You here, as well, O God, when Canon, a capella 2. We glimpse Your Ser - vant's suff' - ring face in Women 3. We hear the prayer our Sa - vior taught from Men 4. We search with - in our an - guished hearts and Parts 5. We seek Your emp - ty cross, O God, Your wrath and ven - geance rend our skies, when build - ings fall and camps of fear - torn ref - u - gees who flee the wreck - age child - ren starved for dail - y bread, whose soft, un - com - pre - yearn to find You there as well: the One who bore and pres - ent love with all who grieve, Your ris - en tri - umph dreams col - lapse be - fore our dis - be - liev - ing eyes.

of our wars, the squa - lor, tor - ment, and dis - ease.
hend - ing cries la - ment the ache of hope gone dead.
bears our pains, each day de - scend - ing in - to hell.
o - ver death: through dark - ness, help us yet be - lieve.

WORDS: Mary Louise Bringle, 2001

MUSIC: Attr. Elkanah Kelsay Dare, as in Pilsbury's United States Harmony, 1799

KEDRON LM

Words © 2001 GIA Publications, Inc.